CASE NO. 8:07CR269

TENTATIVE FINDINGS

The Court has received the Revised Presentence Investigation Report ("PSR") and the Defendant's objections thereto (Addendum). The government adopted the PSR (Filing No. 71). See Order on Sentencing Schedule, ¶ 6. The Court advises the parties that these Tentative Findings are issued with the understanding that, pursuant to United States v. Booker, 543 U.S. 220 (2005), the sentencing guidelines are advisory.

The Defendant's objections are denied for the reasons stated in the Addendum. The Court notes that the objections were not filed pursuant to ¶ 6 of the Order on Sentencing Schedule, and therefore perhaps the Defendant intended to abandon the issues raised.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The Defendant's Objections to the Presentence Investigation Report (Addendum) are denied;
2. Otherwise the Court's tentative findings are that the Presentence Investigation Report is correct in all respects;
3. If any party wishes to challenge these tentative findings, the party shall immediately file in the court file and serve upon opposing counsel and the Court a motion challenging these tentative findings, supported by (a) such evidentiary materials as are required (giving due regard to the requirements of the local rules of practice respecting the submission of evidentiary materials), (b) a brief as to the law, and (c) if an evidentiary hearing is requested, a statement describing why an evidentiary hearing is necessary and an estimated length of time for the hearing;

4. Absent submission of the information required by paragraph 3 of this Order, my tentative findings may become final; and

5. Unless otherwise ordered, any motion challenging these tentative findings shall be resolved at sentencing.

DATED this 30th day of May, 2008.
